

GABRIELLE RICHENS

THE RICH SKIN CLUB

Gabrielle is a veteran model who spent most of her life in front of the camera—in print, TV, and film. After retiring from the entertainment industry she followed her true passion into beauty! She is now an NVQ qualified Skin Therapist, Beauty Nutrition Advisor™, Skin Wellness Coach, and Beauty Copywriter. After a 20 year modeling career, she created The Rich Skin Club to help other 40+ year old women navigate the confusing world of anti-aging skincare!

CONTENT WRITING/BEAUTY BLOG

As a beauty blogger and beauty editor at LuxuriaLifestyle.com she reviewed a wide array of beauty brands from skincare products, nutrition supplements, spas and skin clinics, to medical aesthetics doctors and anti-aging treatments.

CLEAN BEAUTY EXPERT

Gabrielle has been passionate about clean beauty since starting her modelling career at the age of 15. Cosmetic ingredient lists were far less regulated back then, so she had to do her own research to avoid allergic reactions. Now she is sharing her own skincare journey, secrets, and knowledge of beauty with her audience. Speaking of audience.. Her viewers are (mostly) women who are passionate about looking after and investing in their skin. However, many are unsure about how to treat their skin correctly and how to choose suitable skincare products.
